

With Saint Louise

Points for reflection

1st point: Saint Louise was very attentive to the educational and spiritual formation of youth.

What does Saint Louise's life have to say to 21st century youth?

2nd point: Saint Louise experienced times of trouble and anxiety.

What helped Saint Louise to overcome her fears?

3rd point: Saint Louise encouraged the first Confraternities of Charity in a very concrete way through letters and visits.

What activities (services) would Saint Louise encourage us to adopt today?

4th point: Saint Louise was able to make clear to the first Confraternities of Charity the demands of working as a team.

What needs to be improved in the life of my team?

5th point: Saint Louise was a formator and teacher. We are especially aware of the pedagogical method of her visits.

What can we learn from Saint Louise about animating local groups?

6th point: Saint Louise was very attentive to the education of children, especially young girls.

How could we better support the mothers who come to us in the education and raising of their children?

7th point: Saint Louise invited the first Confraternities of Charity to relieve those who were most poor.

Who are the strangers for us today? How can we welcome them?

At the end of your discussion, please select a commitment that, when you return, you will be able to pass on to your group in order to implement it.

Write it on this sheet and hand it in to the indicated location.